

pdf.from_file two important notes

If your file is from an external file source, a full path must be included in the html file

For example, when you an image with src css, src='file:///C:/' should be included not just the image file name alone

ALSO, very important, don't include width and height in css for an image, it won't be loaded by wkhtmltopdf.